Homecoming this year... New and original, yet traditional... Changes in the homecoming contests boosted school spirit. By Brandie Burgett

Many say that changes aren't good, but when dealing with this year's Homecoming contests, different is definitely good. "Kids actually liked being in school during Homecoming Week. Everybody got involved and had a good time," commented senior Joe Wallen.

The competition was fierce and everybody wanted to be the champions. "My favorite contest was the wall tape because it was a fresh idea," said student council member, Jason Denniston. In addition to the students competing, the teachers also had a team this year. At the end of the week, the sophomores came out on top and got to go to the movies.

Homecoming is a time when everybody gets together and has a good time. It makes a lot of memories that will last a lifetime. With all the changes that took place, this Homecoming will definitely be one to remember.
