

I THINK I'VE DIED AND GONE TO HEAVEN... Mark Crumbaugh is the first senior ever to be taped to a wall. The wall taping was new to this year's festivities.

HOW DO YOU LIKE YOUR EGGS? SCRAMBLED! Seventh grader Luann Cermak tries to catch her egg without it splattering all over her in the egg tossing contest.

A. Strouse

T. Polash

G. DeWitt

IS THAT PUDDING ON YOUR FACE? Juniors Missie Dennis and Kristie Spencer try to feed each other pudding while they're blindfolded. The pudding feed was a new and messy contest during Homecoming Week. "It was hard to feed Kristie pudding, blindfolded, but it was fun," commented Missie.

MUSCLE MEN...Sophomores Dave Strnad, Dameon Patterson, Dennis Milledge, Tony Miller, and David Polash pull their own during the Tug-of-War contest. These strong guys ended up being the Tug-of-War champions. Dave Polash commented, "I figured we were just going to dominate everybody because we had such a big team." Dave feels even the seniors were no challenge for the mighty sophomores. "It was a tough battle but they just don't have the strength of the sophomores."

J. Downs

STUDENT COUNCIL First row: Brandie Burgett, Tony Bush, Travis Polash, Jason Denniston Second row: Shawna Bormemann, Jason Saylor, Tony Miller, Derek Dawson, Patrick Yelsik, Luann Cermak, Mrs. Suzanne Luneack Third row: Kristen Fabus, Josh Hamick, Terri Kral, Lisa Strnad, Josh Saylor, Kim Bush.