

Holidays make the Heart grow warm

self sitting in class and tunity to enjoy the the slip girl comes in holiday spirit with with her best creation your loved ones." of Dracula, or hearing the tinsled halls.

At Ashley stu- Senior tive. materialistic items, ries with me forever."

Imagine your- they mean an oppor-

Holidays also the hum of jingle bells mean tradition and as you walk through that's what Ashley 's all about, from the jolly What do holi- red suit Mr. Andersen days mean to you? Is it wears to the juniors' all the great presents annual Christmas you receive, or possi- chicken displayed in bly the time off school? Mrs. Luneack's room. Melissa dents view holidays in Bornemann a different perspec- stated,"Tradition is Terri Kral what makes Ashley so commented,"Holidays special; I know I'll mean a lot more than carry all the memo-

Holidays also mean relationships. At school many realtionships form during the holiday season. Lisa Maier commented,"I like celebrating New Year's Eve the best, because it's fun surprising people with New Year's kisses!"

Whether it may be a friendship, romantic, or mythical relationship, the holidays bring us together. Tracie Turner