What do you get when you put a group of rowdy eighth grade boys and girls in a classroom together? Nothing but trouble, trouble, trouble! "My most memorable experience, this year, happened in English class," Linda Gall said. "A group of boys were picking on Holly Dolloff and her chair broke. It was really funny!" The whole class felt sorry for her but they couldn't keep their emotions in. "We all laughed. We couldn't help it," Mrs. Suzanne Luneack stated. "Holly had this super-stunned look on her face." It is very scary to think this class still has four years left in school and who knows what can happen in that amount of time?
