

HELPING NEEDY FAMILIES L

PEOPLE WHO MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

B. Schulz

WELCOME TO THE CLUB
Terri Kral congratulates Valerie Miller after she is inducted into the NHS. "It's always been my dream to be part of the NHS," stated Valerie Miller.

Service, leadership, scholarship, character. These are the qualities required to become a member of the National Honor Society. And that's not to mention maintaining a GPA at or

What exactly does the NHS do? It's an organization that does plenty, but the one thing they specialize in is helping out. At Christmas time, you'll find NHS members earning money in order to give a needy family a good Christmas. "This year we sponsored two families. We had a bowlathon to collect the money, and we earned $900," stated junior Angie Peters. Not only were presents purchased, but household necessities, as well.

This is not the only help the NHS offers; they sponsor the spring Junior

"It is so rewarding to know that you made someone feel great, especially when we help out at Christmas," stated Mindy Wallen.

High Scholastic Breakfast and the Academic Banquet for scholars and their parents. This allows all the students to be recognized for all their hard work throughout the year. "It feels good to let others know they did well, especially when it's little kids," stated Dan Grollimund.

Lisa Strnad

I CAN'T GET ANY LOWER
Tony Miller bends his neck to receive the NHS senior honor medallion from Mrs. Suzanne Luneack.

S. Luneack

SANTA'S HELPERS...National Honor Society members, Angie Peters, P.J. McGillis, Corey

Studt, and Matt Schueller wrap Christmas gifts for needy families.