kids who like to have fun

When students talk about school, naturally they don't gossip about their latest English paper or an upcoming math test. They talk about the exciting stuff, such as Twirp Week, prom, dances, and sports. All the exciting stuff that requires time and participation outside of school.

Homecoming Week is a perfect example of a school full of excited students. Not only do they talk about who will be Homecoming queen or who will win the float contest, they also get to dress crazy and play games during school.

"I was a little surprised to see some of the seniors acting like little kids," said Sarah Johnston.

Another example of excited students is prom. Many students are busy for weeks shopping for dresses, getting fitted for tuxes, and accessorizing. Plus, many students do extra things such as rent limos, make tanning appointments, and go out to eat together.

When it comes to school spirit and participation after and during school, Ashley students beat other schools ten times their size!

"Even though our school is small, we have lots of spirit," said Misty Henderson, "because we all stick together, and we like to have fun."

As I was saying...

*"My favorite school lunch is pizza... it's the only thing that looks normal and tastes decent."

*"My favorite Twirp Week event is the pie eating contest because I'm good at it."

*"My favorite school sport is football because it's fun to knock guys down."

* "Nice guys don't finish last, it just looks like that most of the time."
