WHERE'S THE FOUL? Miranda Coon takes a beating from the Montebella Mustangs during the first game of the season.

Coach Carl Wayer and the varsity girls trained hard to meet the high expectations the community had for the girls' basketball team.

"My expectations are always based on the amount of time the players put in during the off-season," said Coach Wayer

If this team were to be described in one phrase, it would be untapped potential. Although their record was exceptionally good, the team played in spurts. As with every team, there's always a highlight of the year. Unanimously that highlight was the victory over Ithaca.

"The Ithaca game was the first game we began to play with confidence," remembered guard Denise Garcia.

"BOX-OUT, REBOUND," Lisa Maier remembers thinking. Lisa, a senior, had the top defensive rating of the season.

However, all teams that play well have their own way of getting rid of pregame jitters. Traditionally, the team shares supper at one of the players' houses before a home game, but Kristin Bornemann had her own way of getting rid of nervousness.

"Before every game, I made a trip to the bathroom to get rid of the knots," chuckled Kristin.
