

YOU CAN DO IT! Team members Lisa Strnad and Lisa Maier look on as Sophomore Miranda Coon stretches to get the pass in the game with Fowler.

C. Prikasky

INTRODUCING THE

Sport

OF

volleyball

WHERE LEARNING HOW TO PLAY THE GAME TEACHES

NOT ONLY IMPRESSIVE TEAMWORK but also that

confidence & PRIDE

Pay Off

4-1	Alma	15-15
15-15	Montabella	12-12
9-3	Ithaca	15-15
15-16	Vestaburg	11-14
15-15-15	Sacred Heart	7-10-11
14-15-15	Vestaburg	16-6-6
8-5	Carson City	15-15
2-3	St. Louis	15-15
4-8	Hemlock	15-15
14-15	Fowler	16-13
2-15-15	Morrice	15-7-4
3-15-9	Fowler	15-5-13
14-15-10	Morrice	16-13-15
15-12-15	Sacred Heart	7-15-7
5-13	Ithaca	15-15
15-15	Montabella	9-12
5-6	Fulton	15-15

Winning...most people define that in terms of the team that gets the most points at the end of the game, but the varsity volleyball team gave that word a new meaning. If they lost a game, they thought of it as a learning experience that would help them in the future. Junior Dianne Surdock stated, "When we lost a game we learned from the mistakes and tried to take only the good things with us."

How could anyone describe the season in one word? Well, Coach Michelle Moore did just that. She said "Rebuilding" is the one word that best describes this season. As defined in the dictionary, rebuilding means to bring extensive changes to something. The season was one filled with new learning experiences. Take, for example, the tournaments. This is where they began their extensive rebuilding. It didn't matter whether they tried sleeping or dancing the hokey pokey nothing seemed to work. Coach Moore stated, "When we played Alma at the St. Louis Tournament we played well even though the score may not have shown it." Even though their tournament run didn't go well, they still managed to capture the League Co-Championship title, sharing it with Vestaburg.

C. Prikasky

CONCENTRATION. "Keep your arms straight and stay low was the only thing I was thinking," stated Miranda Coon.

Lisa Strnad