

STAND UP, BE PROUD
Beth Schulz, Terri Kral, Denise Garcia, and Tracie Turner cheer during a home basketball game.

"It's really important to keep your spirit up whether we are winning or losing," said Beth.

INTRODUCING THE

Sport OF

cheerleading

WHERE CARTWHEELS,
HIGH KICKS, AND MOUNTS

COMBINE

TO SHOW SCHOOL SPIRIT

and

chants & CHEERS

Pay off

T. Turner

"Ashley's teams will win over all." These words from the Ashley Fight Song describe why cheerleaders are able to keep their spirit soaring and their constant willingness to try new things every game.

"Every day, every season, and every year is a learning experience," said Coach Dawn Landis.
"Cheerleading is a place to garner and build responsibility, independence, confidence, enthusiasm, and initiative."

Both the junior high and varsity cheerleading squads tried new things this year like stunts and fund raisers to enhance and make people become more involved. Denise Garcia, a varsity cheerleader commented, "The fund raisers helped us the most this year because we made a lot of money to help the program, and the community became involved as well."

L. Strnad

GO! FIGHT! WIN! Sara Turner strikes a pose at the end of a cheer. "This was my first year as a cheerleader and I enjoyed it very much," said Sara.

The squads were so involved in the fun and excitement, they didn't want the seasons to end. "We had so much fun this year that it was hard to see it come to an end," said seventh grader, Annette Cermak.

Terri Kral