

Our Spirit Will Never Die

"Many things have happened to the senior class this year that will never be forgotten. Our sponsor, Mrs. Marcie Fabus, passing away was the main event that drew us together," Mindy Wallen commented about this year.

The year started off a little rocky. We weren't exactly sure what was ahead of us. With Mrs. Fabus helping us along, she made us realize that the upcoming events were what we had been waiting for all of the years we had been in school. Thanks to her, we were able to take first place in the Twirp Week contest, which in turn means our spirit was greater than ever having her by our side.

"Mrs. Fabus always believed in us. She always said that we could do anything we put our minds to," stated Tom Jungnitsch. "That is why our spirit grew so much."

At first, some of us wanted the year to go by in fast-forward, without looking back. Others wanted to put the year in slow motion and sometimes insert a pause or two. That was at the beginning of the year. Now, everyone wouldn't mind hitting the rewind button and starting all over again.

"I'd want us to start off as a class that was close in the beginning instead of after her death because that is what Mrs. Fabus deserved. I wish she could be here to see us now," stated Tim Slaughter.

Terri Kral & Dianne Surdock

WHAT ARE WE WAITING FOR?

Tom Jungnitsch, Shayne Patterson, Tim Slaughter, Lisa Strnad, Angie Peters, and Terri Kral anxiously wait for them to say go. The seniors and juniors went through three ropes to finally discover a winner...the seniors.

KNOT!

Marcie Fabus, Mindy Wallen, Heather Polash, Laurie Jones, Eric Fabus, Tom Jungnitsch, Sherry Reichard, and Tim Slaughter wait to get tied together for the backwards three legged race during Twirp Week.

K. Mepham

K. Mepham

K. Mepham

CONCENTRATION IS THE KEY!

Eric Fabus focuses all his attention to pop this one red balloon so another senior can advance in the relay. "I thought this was going to be easier than it was, but the balloon kept flying away," said Eric.