WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING AT? Amy Dawson and Kari Deming relax during Journalism on Halloween day. "I was surprised to see Kari dressed up as Pooh, I thought it was really cute. I was a green M&M but I took it off before second hour." Amy stated.

BARNARD SHUFFLE! Erik Barnard was a student teacher here this year who was liked by everyone. He brought a lot of excitement and even a few new dancing moves. "I liked teaching here, and I'd like to come back soon."

PLAYTIME! Michelle Albring looks on while the Headstart kids play toys. "I really enjoyed volunteering for them. It was a lot of fun, and it made me feel good that I could help someone that needed it. The little kids were just so darn cute!" Michelle exclaimed.

AND THE WINNER IS Burt Cummings' Halloween costume won the contest that was sponsored by student council. The prize won fifteen dollars.
