"Ending the Century Divine in 1999" was exactly what the 1998-99 Journalism staff did. This year's staff: Matt Crumbaugh, Amy Dawson, Kari Deming, Misty Henderson, Terri Kral (yearbook editor), Jessica McMann, Kristin Mephram, Angela Simone, Dianne Surdock (budget manager), Mindy Wallen, and Patrick Yelsik, worked exceptionally hard to produce an outstanding yearbook.

Volume 74 Bear Tracks was published by Jostens Yearbook Division in Clarksville, Tennessee. A big thank you goes to Mike Lafferty for serving as our Jostens representative. IBM computers were used with Windows 95 and the Microsoft Publisher program. Maiandra GD was the font for body copy with the exception of headlines. Stories for division pages are in twelve point and captions are in ten point. Stories for all other spreads are in ten point and captions are in eight.

Professional photography services were provided by Geskus Photography located in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Our photography staff consisted of Amy Dawson, Terri Kral, Dawn Landis, Kristin Mephram (editor), and Charles Prikasky. Film was developed at Ric's Food Center in Ithaca, Michigan and Wal-Mart in Alma, Michigan. One hundred and twenty-five copies were printed and sold at $25 each.
