

SADD Front row: Angie Simone, Amy DAWD Second row: Kari Deming, Ron Boucher, James Polash, Katie Beck, Luann Cermak, Annette Cermak, Sara Turner, Corrine Felton, Stacy Densmore, Brittany Lautner Third row: Brandon Beck, Scott Czeiszperger, Jesse Diffin, Amanda Pearson, Josh Mason, Cassandra Richmond, Amy Cermak, Sarah Whitford Fourth row: Curt Long, Chelsie Long, Amy Walter, Alissa Czeiszperger, Amanda Barror, Kim Albring, Vikki Turner, Desiree Tessman, Rachel Dycus, Jill Cermak Back row: Advisor Marilyn Gearhart, Jeremy Polash, Becky Long, Sarah Johnston, Gabriel Wolfe, Kari Bearden, Advisor Dawn Landis.

Geskus Photography

A SADD SCENE

D. Landis

MY LIFE IS GONE Staring pensively out the window, "drunk driver" Amy Walter contemplates the tragic turn her life has made, as she faces a possible twenty to forty year prison sentence for vehicular manslaughter.

According to Ms. Dawn Landis, co-advisor of SADD, there were difficulties to get past in putting together the mock accident that was presented to the student body on the football field one sunny Spring morning. One problem was trying to find parents who would agree to let their child be one of the "fatalities" of the mock accident. This would entail the parents going to the morgue to identify their child's body and planning a funeral.

The role of the drunk driver was played by Amy Walter, who was shaken by this experience of, hypothetically, killing two of her classmates. "Being arrested, handcuffed, and thrown in the back of a cop car definitely is not my idea of partying. I've decided to make sure that I will be available to be a designated driver for whoever needs it from now on. I don't ever want anyone to have to go through that for real," she reflected.

"Victim" Wayne McElhaney advised, "Being in the crashed car made me realize how serious this issue is. It showed me that I will never drink and drive."

SADD's goal was to present a dramatic and forceful portrayal of just how dangerous a so-called "good time" can be. Most students agreed that the message came across loud and clear.

-Bob Franks

"OH GOD, OH GOD!" Shocked friends Amy Walter, Corrine Felton, Tim Bates, and Aaron Schulz try desperately to rouse a dying Kevin Fabus.

STUDENTS AGAINST
DESTRUCTIVE DECISIONS