What was the funniest memory you have of the building during Homecoming week?

- ◆ TJ Good: "When me and a few other guys mouthed off to Ms. Brown and got kicked out."
- ◆ Brenda McElroy: "The way it turned out. We didn't have enough time to do anything so it didn't look very good."
- ◆ Cassie Adams: "The eighth grade float turned out so crappy. That's the funniest thing."
- ◆ Nicole Ringle: "Jimmy misspelled Ashley on our bear's face. He spelled it Ashly! It wasn't funny then because the girls had to redo the whole bear, but now that I think about it, I look back and think it's funny now."
- ◆ Carrie Long: "Trying to get it together. Everything we tried to do, it seemed like it wouldn't turn out."
- ◆ Jimmy Halsey: "I tried putting white paper over card board. Then I tried drawing a bear and it looked like crap so I put Ashley across its forehead, but the funny thing is, that I spelled it wrong. I spelled it Ashly! I got mad so I spray painted the whole piece of paper. I had to start all over from the top with putting white paper over card board. It didn't turn out very well."

No Worries... Brenda McElroy, Cassie Adams, and Jessica Reist sit down and take it easy while their float coasts through the Homecoming parade. "Our float really sucked so we just sat down, hoping not to be seen," they stated.
