

C. Prikasky

THE GAME PLAN IS... Tim Bates and James Polash coach Tisha Stoneman and Amy Walter. They were part of the Freshman-Junior team during the Powder Puff game Homecoming Week. "Our strategy was to win and look good," said Tim. "However, we didn't take first place, but we pulled off a good fight."

One week
it's summer... the next it's Homecoming week.

The Heat Is On

GRRR... James Polash bobs for apples at the Homecoming relays. "I just wanted to win so we could beat the seniors and go to the movies," stated James. James helped the junior class win overall by taking first place in the apple bob.

"Already? Why so soon?" This is what most people were asking after they found out Homecoming week was beginning shortly after school started.

"I wasn't too happy about Homecoming week starting so soon. Students had basketball and football games on top of practices, and to top it off, Labor Day was thrown in as well," commented sophomore class sponsor Mrs. Sue Peterson.

However, some students thought differently.

"I would have to say that Homecoming week seemed no different this year than any other year. All the work evened out, but Homecoming got over sooner in the year," stated senior Amy Dawson.

"Homecoming week was great; however, there was more chaos because of it all starting so soon," stated Josh Adams.

Are they the Onekama Cardinals or Onekama Portagers? This became a common question. "We had some confusion when we first started building our float. At first, we put the wrong mascot on it," said Mrs. Peterson.

Complications or not, everyone at Ashley survived the week. "It came so soon and it ended so fast, but it was fun ... it was my last," giggled senior Jessica McMann.

-Luann Cermak

IT'S A BIRD, IT'S A PLANE, NO... IT'S NONE OTHER THAN BLAKE PRUD-HOMME. Mrs. Sue Peterson watches as Ryan Stoneman and Jacob Lindquist dress Blake in a newspaper costume. The newspaper costume contest was a new relay during this year's Homecoming week.

J. Diffin

HOMECOMING WEEK