

D.Landis

"I CAN'T WAIT UNTIL THE REAL PARTY," says Patrick Yelsik, "it'll help me forget this headache."

Everyone feels like a guest at the same party!

J.Cermak

Dreams of

Paris

"SEXY WHAT?" you know the saying. Well, anyway, these are the men of the junior class who attended the prom. So, what do you think?

"I thought going to prom stag was going to be a drag, but all my friends made it a lot of fun," stated sophomore Jill Cermak. Who says you have to have a date for prom in order to have fun?

When the seniors' song came on, all the seniors formed a circle and started dancing with their arms around each other. Valerie Miller admits to being the first to cry. "I suddenly realized that this was going to be my last prom with these people," Valerie stated, "and that it would probably be the last time I ever saw them all together."

With a theme of "Dreams Of Paris," everyone had their pictures taken in front of the Eiffel Tower. The junior guys all had to have their pictures taken together which included: Aaron Grollimund, Aaron Schulz, Tim Bates, Josh Mason, Josh Adams, Jesse Diffin, Eric Deming, Jacob Harris, Pat Yelsik, and James Polash. "We're a really close group of guys so, of course, we had to get our pictures taken together!" commented James Polash.

The night was coming to an end and everyone was preparing to leave when Aaron Schulz decided to start swinging his prom glass and broke it, slicing open his hand. The end to his night was in the emergency room getting stitches.

-Amy Walter

"CHEERS." states senior Roy "Geno" Burgett. Geno was one the seniors at the prom who decided to take a pose with their beloved counselor, Ms Jennifer Brown.