

J. Shaw

The question is asked, and the wheels of many minds begin to turn, looking for the answer. Everyone wants to rush to find the answer before somebody else does, or before time is called.

This is quiz team, an organization that combines fun and knowledge...and looks good on a college application.

Quiz team is full of friendly competitive matches, and sometimes these matches become unforgettable for members of quiz team. "My most memorable moment of the season is a friendly, competitive match against Bath. It was a fun, joking environment," said one of the members of

WHAT IS THAT? Sarah Johnston eats a slice of pizza at the quiz team pizza party. "We may not have had the greatest season, but we kept our spirits up and had some fun." stated Sarah.

the high school quiz team, Sarah Johnston.

The questions these students are asked come from many different areas, including history, geography, math, music, and literature.

"The questions about music and literature are very hard because I don't know anything about those categories, but I like the history questions, because I'm good at history," said Joe Shaw.

The junior high quiz team participates in a Quiz Bowl, which is sent to them on a computer disk and contains one-hundred questions.

The top scorer for the high school team was James Easlick with Joe Shaw coming in second. James also placed in the league high scorers. "I really admire the quiz team members, especially those who score highly. It takes a great memory and a lot of knowledge to do that well," stated Kari Deming

Brandon Beck

It's all silent thoughts until...
The Buzzer Goes Off