BUSY AT WORK Sara Turner helps in the office while Mary is at lunch. Sara files, types, answers phone calls, and takes messages for Mary. "Mary appreciates the small things we do for her and I like that," shared Sara.

Many teachers have cadets who help them. A lot of people don't understand how much work it takes to be a cadet sometimes. In a community, there are usually people who volunteer to help with the elderly and abused children. Here at Ashley High School, Principal Gary Schestag and his colleagues have instituted a service learning program. They put volunteerism, kitchen help, and cadet teaching under one category, service learning. One reason for changing these classes to a new perspective
