

I Don't Want To!

THE HISTORY OF... Chris Reynolds and Dustin Schueller explain the poster that they made for history class. The students participate in many teamwork activities.

Sometimes in a class you get stuck doing things that you don't really want to do, such as getting up in front of everyone and giving a speech, or being someone who is allowed to get picked on constantly for three days.

That's what happens when you are in a social studies class. The Sociology class does an exercise where students get discriminated against for a three day period. They were only allowed to use a certain restroom or drinking fountain and were not allowed to talk to "regular" students.

DON'T LET GO Troy Adams and Tim Bates hobble to class together after Mr. Larsen thought it would be funny to tape the dots legs together.
