

Lip-syncs, relays,
and slave auctions all result in...

Having

Fun

Walking down the hallway, students see people wearing cowboy boots and chaps, with flannel shirts, and cowboy hats. There goes the Baker gang - Baker, Brower, and Gearheart - red bandanas round their neck, ready for a quick bank heist. Is this a cowboy movie? Nope, it's just Western Day.

Many students showed their spirit during homecoming

CHILLIN' Tim Bates, Troy Adams, James Polash, and Jacob Harris watch their team get sold at the auction.

in a traditional dress-up day. Crystal Boucher stated, "I liked seeing people dress up for my first homecoming week ever. My favorite dress up day was Ghetto day, because I got to dress up in really big and baggy clothes."

While Crystal enjoyed Ghetto day, a new addition to the dress up days, some people preferred the old traditional dress-up days that happen over and over again. A good example is Stacy Densmore. "I really enjoyed pajama day because all I had to do is wake up, brush my hair, and go out the door."

Part of the fun of homecoming week is looking forward to the traditional dress up days. "They are the best because more people participate in them, and you know we'll always have them," commented, Vikki Turner.

Katie Beck

J. Diffin

HOT BABES "We're sexy women," comments Troy Adams and Tim. Tim Bates and Troy Adams have a girl talk during slave day.

STOP CRYING Joe Shaw dresses up for slave day after being bought by Mrs. Baker. "It wasn't fun at all," commented Joe.

POOF "I like anything mystical," commented Kari. Kari Deming dressed up as a wizard for her favorite character day.

SMILE Jason Mora and Cassie Richmond show their spirit at the lipsync. "We had fun doing it," stated Cas-