

To look drop dead gorgeous you need a lot of...

Pre-Prom

Primpin'

Prom night is a big night and it takes a lot of time, energy, and money to make the event memorable.

Shopping for the perfect dress that fits in all the right places is a time consuming venture. "I hit the malls right after Snowball looking for the perfect dress," said Annette Cermak. "I found it at JcPenny's in Owosso; it was love at first sight." Others waited until spring break to hunt for sales. "When I went up north for spring break, I found my dress in a bridal shop window," confessed Lyndsay Goward.

FAKE-BAKED BABE Hottie Brandon Beck soaks up some rays in his own personal tanner. He uses the tanning bed to take nice, warm, thirty minute naps.

"I got my tux two days before prom and was extremely lucky to get my first choice. I was also lucky in other areas, such as with the ladies. I had the privilege of taking two ladies, Gina Mepham and Stacy Densmore," remarked Brandon Beck.

"I put in a lot of long hours so I would have money to make the night memorable," said

Andrew Mills.

"Before prom I went and got my nails done. Nails are an important element that polish off the look," said Vicki Gilbert.

All you need is to find the perfect attire plus the perfect date and you'll have a perfect night.

Lyndsay Goward

L.Gowarr

SLEEPING BEAUTY "I was looking forward to looking great and having a lot of fun and that's what I did," states Gina Mepham.

DIETER'S DELIGHT "Like most girls, I diet. I think Diet Coke is pretty gross. I'll stick to my Slim Fast," replies Heather Jones.

PERFECTION Ann Bancroft gets caught giving herself a manicure. "I like painting and filling my own nails," confesses Ann.

NOT TOO SHORT "I have to have my hair a certain length; other wise, it looks like crap," states Lucas Studdt.