

SPOKEN SURVIVORS Students look at many shirts from rape survivors, brought in by a speaker. These shirts explained their incidents.

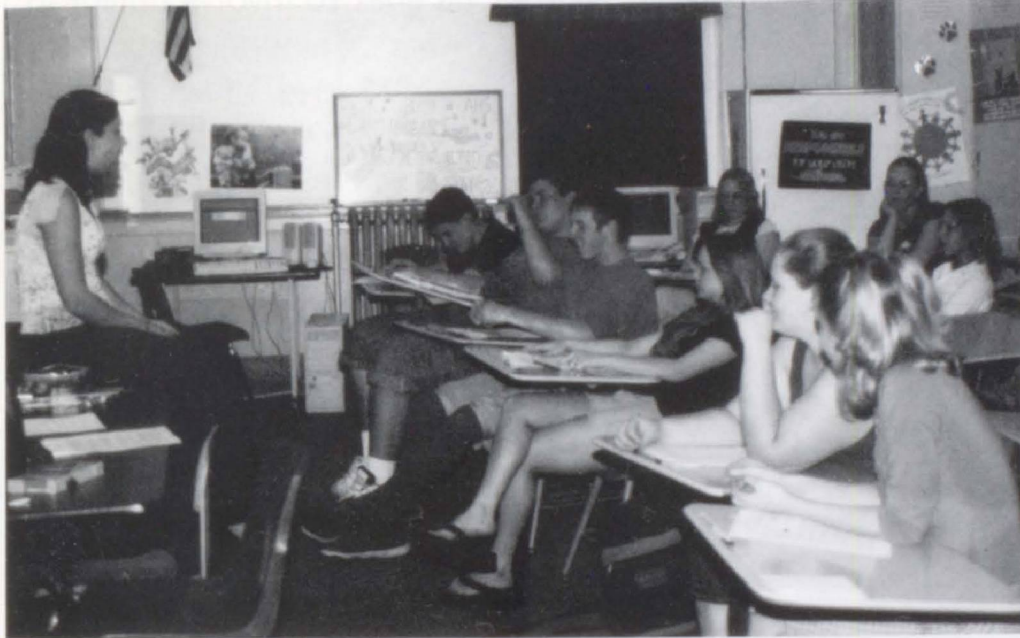

A. Turner

TIME OUT Taking a stretch, Tiffany Oswald laughs at what had seemed to be a "personal joke." "I seemed to get very bored in computer apps., after staring at the screen for so long, I needed a break," commented Oswald.

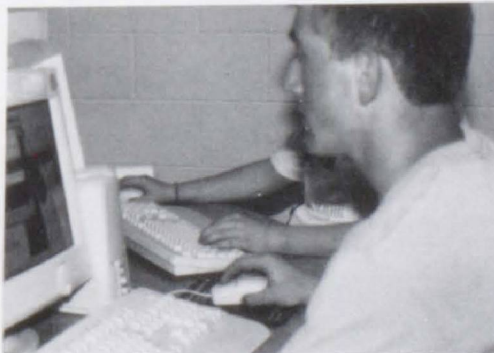

K. Beck

A. Turner

FACING THE FACTS The health class had a speaker explain the effects of drugs and many other facts of life. "I think it help many realize the "TRUE" facts," said Denise Cermak.

GENIUS AT WORK TJ Good finishes up the last minute touches for his personal slideshow in portfolio. This is one of the many business classes used to help get the feel of computer programs.

A. Turner

What high school Class do you feel will help you prepare for your future?

Class of 2005

"English, I really like to write; taking English has only helped me more for the future."

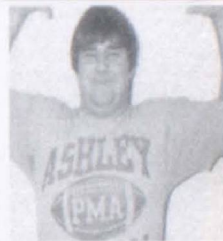

~DeeDee Simmons

Class of 2004

"Government. When I get in trouble with the law, I can work my way out of it."

~Tyler Reynolds

Class of 2003

"Computer Applications, because in my future I intend to go into Human Resources; my improved typing skills will help."

~Sara Turner

Class of 2002

"Accounting, because in my future I intend to go into business, and it really helped me."

~Lucas Stude

