

MY TURN TO PLAY?? By looking down, Senior Brandon Beck, tries to block out the crowd at the Ashley Senior band concert.

C. Prikasky

IT'S JUST TOO HEAVY Carrying one of the biggest drums on the field, Amber Ingersoll marches onto the field to play the STAR SPANGLED BANNER before the big game against Manistee Catholic.

Schaffert Photography

Schaffert Photography

GETTING LIGHTHEADED? The Ashley Junior-Senior band holds the final note while playing THE ROSE on Homecoming Night before announcing the 2002 King and Queen.

JUST LIKE THAT Junior-Senior high band instructor, Ms. Sara Potter, helps out flute player, Emily Mepham, before playing the STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

Schaffert Photography

What inspires you most to be in the band?

Class of 2006

"My older brothers have always played music and I just really love the sound of music."

-Jason Cooley

Class of 2005

"It's an easy A+ and we always get to have free days!"

-Stephanie Beck

Class of 2004

"I feel that band Class is really fun and I enjoy playing music of my own."

-Rachael Lund

Class of 2003

"I really love music and I would do anything to just play it."

-Becky Long

