

Dreaming of Life's Journey

Many high school students catch themselves asking what they will become after they receive their diploma. This can be answered easily.

Ashley High School offers many Service learning classes for ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade classes. These classes help prepare students for their future years to come.

Teacher, Mr. Todd Starry, said, "Service learning students learn skills like responsibil-

Do not dismiss your dreams. To be without dreams is to be without hope. To be without hope is to be without purpose. Do not run through life so fast that you forget not only where you have been, but also where you are going. Life is not a race, but a journey to be savored each step of the way.

ity - both oral and written-- how to get along with others, initiative, dependability, following directions, self confidence, doing a good job, and how to get along with the supervisor. These skills along with a proper attitude will take students further than all the homework and tests." Service learning classes such as going to the Latice Company (the town floral shop), the Ashley Eight Cap Head Start, and other classes around school help prepare many students. Volunteering his services at Head Start, sophomore Craig Densmore stated, "Not only does my service learning class help me learn responsibility skills for future jobs, but working with kids has also prepared me for future family expectations I may run into on the road of life."
