

Come Celebrate Christmas

Our Way

HURRY UP! As Ryan Bates and Chelsie Long try to put decorations on their Christmas Tree Tommy Harrell demands that they go a little faster so they can win this part of the competition.

Every year the student council plans events for students to participate in. This year they thought of a new activity to do before Christmas break. Instead of the usual wall decorating contest, the student council sponsored a wagon parade and relay races.

"I thought it was a lot better because a lot of people didn't whine about getting ripped off, it was pretty fair, and it was a lot of fun," commented Joe Shaw. The wagon parade consisted of each class decorating a wagon with a Christmas theme. The senior class were the winners this year, with Eric Kirkey as Santa Claus and Troy Adams as Rudolph.

"It was worth all the hard work pulling Eric around because we won," stated Troy Adams. Next were the relay races, which consisted of decorating a person as a present and decorating a "Christmas Tree" in three minutes. "It was fun being wrapped up as a present, I got to experience being a human gift," commented Katie Beck. As for the Christmas Tree decorating, Ryan Bates stated, "Decorating the Christmas Tree was fun; I thought ours looked better than anybody else's."

In summary, the student council pulled off a fun activity that had everybody participating in some way.
