

Let's HANG out!

EIGHT SECOND RIDE "I like hanging with my friends," states eighth grader Tyler Densmore riding with his friend Matt.

CHECK THIS OUT! "I like walking around talking to people, or I also like playing basketball," remarks seventh grader John Wilson.

LAZYBOY "I like to sit back and relax every day, chilling with people," states freshman Josh Harrell.

WHAT? "I just like hanging out and playing basketball," states junior Travis Yelsik, a former Lake Odessa student.

SAY AAHH! "I like to play sports, mainly basketball," states seventh grader Travis Yelsik.

POT PUPPY The Canine unit gives a demonstration on finding drugs.

THREE WISE MEN Upper classmen Troy Adams, Brandon Beck, and Jared Wallen browse through college catalogs.

SURPRISE Superintendent Roger Keck surprises Brandee Brauer with a birthday present as part of a tradition he started.

Question: If you had to choose the worst work experience you've ever had, what would you pick?

Mr. Roger Keck says...

"When I was young, I picked strawberries and sour cherries. It was hot, back breaking work and at $.05 a pound, at the end of the season I'd earned only $45.00."
