BRAIN FREEZE? Sarah Shaw devours a bowl full of ice cream for the Homecoming Week relays. "I had a lot of fun making a mess," chuckled Sarah.

Being enemies and fighting with each other is one of the sophomores' pet peeves. They like to see themselves as being close knit with each other.

"I like the feeling of being everyone's friend and no one's enemy," commented Rachael Lund. "It's almost like we are the Brady Bunch and that is a good feeling to have."

Even though they have their differences, they always seem to have a way to compromise with each other in a simple way that no one leaves a class meeting angry.

"There's no arguments between the sophomores," stated Ms. Jennifer Brown. "They always come to a compromise."

What if...

You could spend one whole day with anyone in history... whom would you choose and why?

"Wilt Chamberlain, because he was a great basketball player who was respected by many people," commented TJ Good.

"William Shakespeare, because I enjoy poetry and I think he would be a person who understands how feelings are and how people should be treated," stated Jessica Howard.
