Basketball... a game where all that matters is the size of your heart and your desire to win.

POSITION!! Sophomore Ashleigh Kauffmann fights for position under the hoop. Ashleigh stated, "I was proud of starting almost every game and only being a sophomore."

Ashleigh Kaufmann also remarked, "I would give us a grade of a B- on the year. We improved a lot this season, but just not enough."

There were three seniors leading the way for the squad this year.

Senior Jill Cermak stated, "I had a lot of fun learning what it was all about being a senior leader. I am just disappointed that I will never get to step on the basketball court again. I would give anything to play one more game." Ashleigh remarked, "I had a lot of fun in districts against Portland St. Pats. I did really well on the boards and scored six points, too." The girls suffered a disappointing loss in the district game against Portland. Overall, the season was a success for the girls' basketball team.
