t was a long trip up to football camp in Grand Marais, Michigan, but the unity it brought the team was well worth the car cramps. They had the chance to climb 500 FT+ sand dunes to help get them in shape. Camp helped to give the Bears a great start to a brand new season.

"This season was fun, even though we didn't win a lot of games we should have. It was tough dealing with some of the losses, but we'd

BEAR

BY JJ COOLEY

B Franks

Football is more than a game, it's a way of life and teaches you how to succeed.

AORIE

COWABUNGA! Troy Adams catches some air over Jared Wallen as Jeremy Polash looks on, and Coach Knarr takes a picture. This 500 ft.+ sand dune was not just hard work for the Bears, it was fun and adventurous!

work extra harder! This season left a lot of memories for the team," corner back T.J. Good stated.

Yeah, a 4-5 record isn't the greatest, but the Bears learned a lot. Most importantly they had fun and now share great memories. Troy Adams said, "I had a lot of fun against Memphis. I ended up with 236 yards rushing and four touchdowns. From the moment of kickoff I knew I was going to have a memorable game, and I did. Perfect timing for it to come too... my last game, and it was home!"

Varsity Football

Positively, the Bears came out on top. The season was satisfying, not so much for the record, but the fun and memories that the whole squad shared!

GO, GO, GADGET, KICK! Ryan Bates pounds a kick through the back of the end zone. Bates commented, "That was my farthest kickoff this season!"

-JJ Cooley