

“There was a pop fly in the infield and Megan called it and was going for it. She has no depth perception and so she was like ‘I got it, I got it, No I don’t!’ We ended up running into each other a little bit and I caught the ball!” exclaimed Hillary Gilbert.

The girls’ season was full of improvement but not all of it took place on the field at a game. Most of the girls’ season was canceled because of the weather. Over one-third of the games were canceled,

WE'VE GOT

Achievement— Being on the cutting edge of triumph... attaining goals beyond what others think.

LET'S GO, TEAM!!! The softball team gets fired up before going out to sweep Webberville in both games. The Bears mercied Webberville in both ends of the doubleheader.

and the girls were really disappointed about that.

“I felt really ripped off because my senior softball year was gone. We didn’t get to show anyone what we could do or play to our full potential. I wish that we could get those games back but we can’t,” commented senior Stacey Densmore.

Although the girls’ seasons didn’t quite go so well weather-wise, as the season progressed they kicked it back in gear.

The game against Webberville was played after they just had two weeks of practice, without a game. The Lady Bears came back to beat Spartans, 10-3, 13-1. Angela Strouse finished the game with three RBI’s while Meagan Diffin went three for four, batting.
