Uncontainable

School Spirit

The most anticipated week of the school year came to life with neck-n-neck relays, pie covered faces, the traditional lip sync and tug of war.

Kaylee Beck confessed that her strategy in competing in the marshmallow toss was timing and her big mouth.

With tons of laughs and the competitive level soaring high, the seniors undefeated tug of war team remained on top. Joe Shaw reflected, "We had the strength, the will, and the experience to dominate."

Though the seniors were enthusiastic, the eighth graders were the ones who dominated and took first place at the end of Spirit Week.

Sophomore Tyler Reynolds stated, "It was great to get out of classes. My favorite part was the lip sync. I enjoyed watching Caleb and Jimmy. Caleb is hilarious on stage and off."

GROOVIN' Cassie Richmond, Jason Mora, Wayne McElhaney and Katie Beck rock their way to first place in the lip sync.
