

The Cutting Edge.....	107	U.S. Postal Service.....	120	Weber's Meat Markets.....	116
The Dog House.....	105			Whitford Wrecker.....	114
The Lattice Company.....	123			Wideman Appraisal
The Parson's Pen.....	122			Service.....	112
The Wheel Inn.....	111			William's Hardware.....	115
Tri-Ami Bowl.....	117

Colophon

Let The Ride Begin was the theme chosen by the yearbook staff in answer to the fast pace on which the year began. On the heels of the 9/11 national tragedy came all the furor of Homecoming, which without lessening the pain and grief of that event, at least gave us something on which to focus our energy. And although life would never be the same for our country, we found that it does go on. That's what this book is about.

The staff for this year's book were Amanda Barror, Katie Beck, Annette Cermak (Budget Manager), Jill Cermak (Editor), Jeremiah Cooley, Stacy Densmore, Megan Diffin, Vicki Gilbert, Lyndsay Goward, Ashleigh Kaufmann, Rachel Lund, Gina Mephram, Cassandra Richmond, Joe Shaw (Photography Editor), Lucas Studt, Angela Turner, and Mrs. Suzanne Baker, Journalism teacher.

Special thanks are owed to some people who were indispensable to the production of this book. They are Mr. Michael Lafferty, our Josten's representative, whose faithful service helped us through any crisis which arose; Mr. Chuck Prikasky, local amateur photographer, whose generous donation of his expertise, time, and materials has been invaluable; and Nicole Gilbert, who coordinated all ad production. These behind-the-scenes people are all appreciated.

Volume 77 of Bear Tracks was published by Josten's Yearbook Division in Clarksville, Tennessee. IBM computers were used with Windows 98 and the Microsoft Publishing program. Kristen ITC font was used for all copy with the exception of headlines, the senior section, and specialty sidebars. Division, Opening, and Closing were in 12 point and all other stories in 11 point and captions in 8 point.

Professional photography services were provided by Geskus Photography located in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Film was developed at RJC's Market in Ithaca, Michigan and Wal-Mart in Alma, Michigan. One hundred and twenty-five copies were published and sold at $25 each.

