

2003

top 5

REASONS WHY
ENGLISH IS SO
HARD TO LEARN

1. Since there is no time like the present, he thought it was time to present the present.
2. The buck does funny things when does are present.
3. After a number of injections my jaw got number.
4. I had to subject the subject to a series of tests.
5. We must polish the Polish furniture.

Facts of Life

Everyone knows life comes and goes like the wind blowing through the trees on a warm spring day. What everyone mostly forgets is that whatever challenges meet us face to face on the path of life comes with four virtues: responsibility, respect, loyalty, and trust. With these four virtues, we, as students, teachers, and individuals work hard to overcome the obstacles that form a thick wall around us to try and to stop us from what we want to accomplish. Our goals as a student body are to accomplish our high school years, to keep the friends we've engaged, and to have a successful life. With this in mind, the years we've encountered pass before our eyes, we see sudden pot holes on the path of life helping us as one unit discover SIMPLICITY IS JUST AN ILLUSION!

-Cassandra Richmond-

Michelle Moore

HEY LADIES! William Pearson and Brandon Klich dress up as two young ladies for freedom impaired day.

Katie Beck

PUSH! William Pearson, Jeremy Polash, and Jerad Wallen try to push their way to a victory in the first annual car push.