

We're All About the Brain!

"Quiz team is more than just answering questions. It is all about group effort; everyone must contribute to do well."

Determination, excellence, teamwork, desire to win. All the qualities that a team of any kind needs to possess. This year's team has it all. And on top of that, they now have two trophies to add to the schools collection. This has been a long time coming for this group of kids, and we should all be proud of them. They are all looking forward to next year, and hope that they do just as well.
