

WHAT? Curtis Long stares dumbfoundedly at the camera trying to figure out why every time he turns around someone is snapping a picture.

IS THIS MEXICO? Nope, it's just Mike Teddy and Jeremy Owen walking past the crowd during the end of swing out.

SAY CHEESE Ryan Peck and Rebeca Long have their picture taken together one last time.

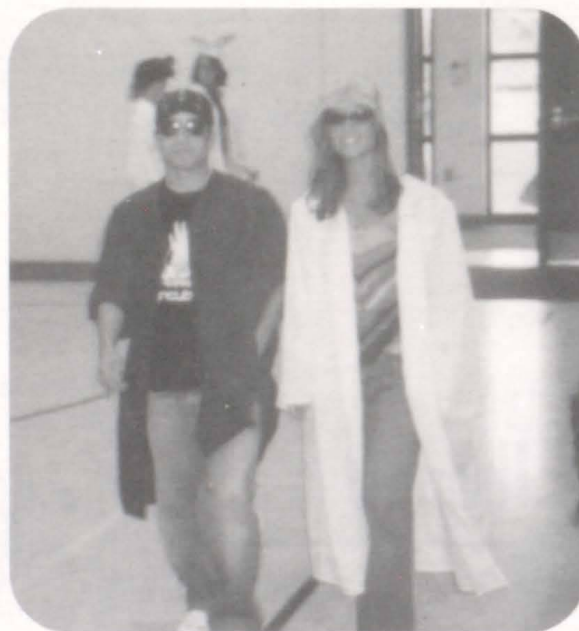

Swing Out

Letting Go

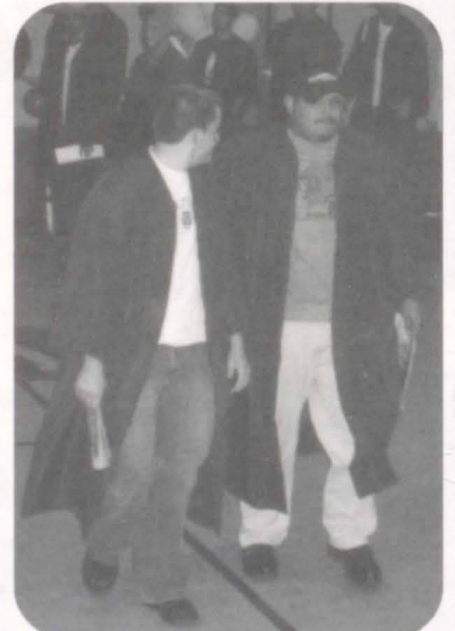

We have held hands
Through each precious day,
But, now that we are older
Our hands are slipping away.
Our days have now
Come to an end,
We go out into the world
Knowing we have a friend.
Even though we are leaving,
We will always be one.
That's why we should remember
The great times of fun.
And when we look back
To this very day,
Remember the Ashley Bears,
And what they had to say.

WE ARE DONE Justin Andrews and Dustin Schueller think to themselves, 'It's the last day of school and only seven more days until we are permanently out of here.'

YEAH, WE'RE COOL Walking past the crowd to their seats, Annette Cermak and J.J. Cooley smile for the camera. They were heard commenting, "We finally did it!"

WALK FASTER! On his way back past the crowd, Kyle Stahl starts to lag behind his walking partner Andrew Lemstrom.
