

what attitudes bring...

Meet the Volleyball Team

"We could have been a better volleyball team, if we would have gotten along better and put the problem in your pocket and snap it shut," exclaimed Erin Koppleberger.

This year the team's record didn't show too much. They had some problems with numbers and others bailing on them, along with Erin's knee injury, which kept the team from playing to their full potential.

"We did pretty well even though we had a couple mishaps. Attitudes made it pretty difficult for us to get along. It was a whole bunch of he said, she said stuff. We pulled together pretty well in the end," stated Kelsi Mizer.

Even though the team was small this year, and the record didn't show it, they still gave teams a run for their money when they played hard and lived up to their potential.

"I believe that in the future we could be a good volleyball team if we learn to work together," said Amanda Lange
