

Michelle Moore

A: Jessica Tribble
 B: Craig Follet
 C: MikeTeddy, Mr. Steve Larsen

GO BEARS!
Scott Pupava shows his school spirit by painting his face blue and gold.

ARRRRGGGGHHH!!!
Caleb Follett pulls with all his might on the tug-of-war for Spirit Week.

Michelle Moore

Michelle Moore

Blue & Gold Traditions

The class competitions, float activities, face paintings, slave auction, and the parade are all traditions of Homecoming Week at Ashley. Half the fun is all the anticipation.

All classes except for the seniors look forward to competing in the float competition. Mike Saylor remarked, "I was able to hang out with my friends, build something that looked good and was recognized, and most of all my favorite part was all the free food!"

On Wednesday we held our annual slave auction to help raise money for the Student Council. Among the football players being sold was Jerad Wallen. His cousin Kaylee stated, "I had to buy him because it was his last year of high school, and I wanted to have my last chance to torture him. I put Jerad in a dress and dolled him up with LOTS of make-up. What can I say... it's the best he's looked in years."

The week was filled with new and old relays. One memory that will always stick out in people's minds was when we had the new relay called, "The Car Push." It was the teachers turn to push the car, when Mike Teddy started the car and took off. Mr. Tom Saylor and all the teachers tumbled to the ground.

Finally, the Homecoming parade was held Friday, leaving a lot of memories.