

Social Studies Technology

CUT CUT CUT ... Barbara Gall busy herself with cutting out some paper for one of Mrs. Martinez's endless projects.

WELL THAT DOESN'T SEEM RIGHT ... You can just tell that Danny Bates finds a problem with the class curriculum, and is not afraid to speak up about it. Or maybe he's just confused ... you can almost never tell with him.

I DIDN'T DO IT! Even while handcuffed and guarded by Jeff Gearhart, Brian Polash still manages to look innocent.

HOODELY HOO! Nikki Limbert thinks paying attention is silly when you look this good.

I KNEW I SAW THE ANSWER IN HER SOMEWHERE ... Becca Mills peruse her class material in Social Studies 7. Though they're not usually the most focused bunch here at Ashley, this class still manages to do what needs to be done (mostly).
