Eek ... • Mrs. Jen Jason is having some sort of smell induced spasm ... or something like that.

The search • Mr. Brian Gavenda searches through the paper shreds to see if the relay was rigged.

Working hard or hardly working? • Mr. Arnie VanDeMark at his usual post - spending long hours tucked behind his desk trying to finish up on some of his never-ending workload.

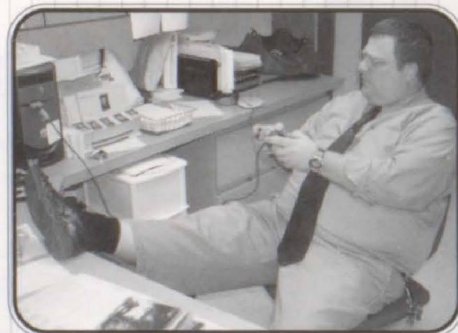

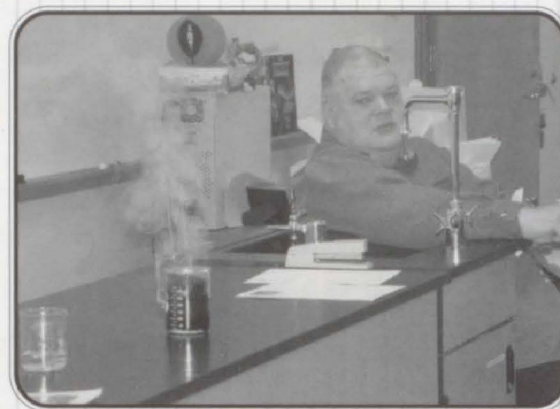

Cheese • Just as always, Mrs. Candy Burk is flashing those pearly whites.

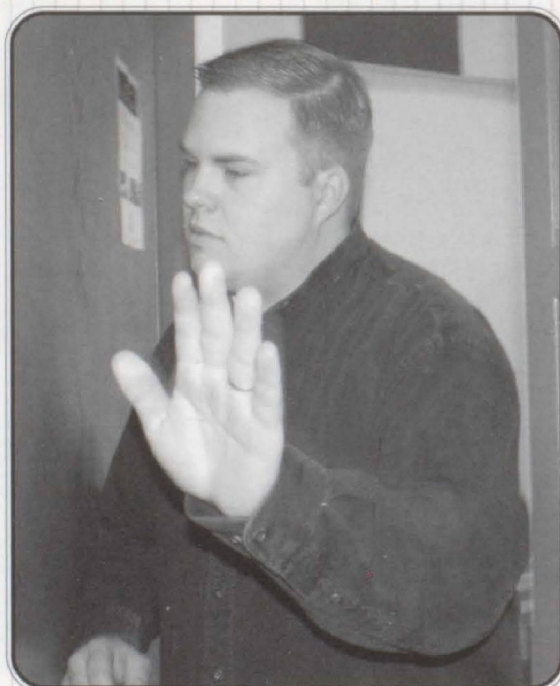

Mrs. Sue Peterson

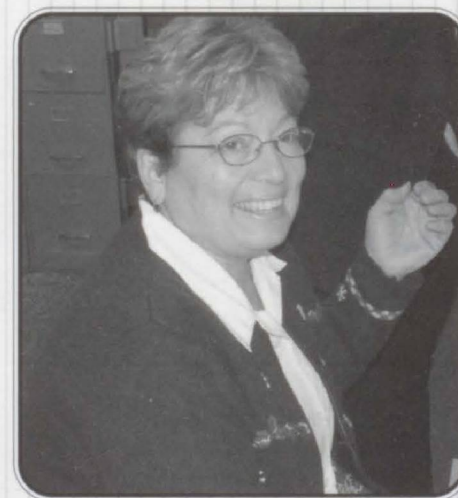

Mmm ... carbon • Mr. Steve Larsen demonstrates an experiment to one of his science classes.

It doesn't work • Well of course it doesn't ... Mr. Tom Saylor is seen here trying to plug a pS2 contoller into the floppy drive of Mary's computer ... gotta love technology!

Not gonna happen • Mr. Adrian Cervini can't be bothered - looks like he's on a mission.

Good times • There always seems to be something fun happening down the hall in the Superintendent's office, and this is no exception. Mrs. Gloria Keck is having one of those laugh-a-minute days.
