

TECHNOLOGY

SQUARE IT RIGHT ...

Sophomore Michael Saylor uses a keen eye to get his work done for Mr. Kim Cordray's class. In the beginning of the year, the class had to be held in the cafeteria until the construction was completed in the new building.

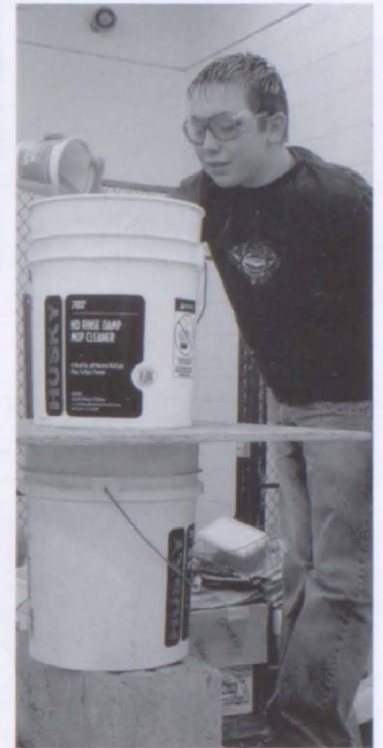

A LITTLE MORE...

Will Lacker carefully etches his woodworking piece. He takes great pride in his creations.

A DAB WILL DO...

Zach Theil tries with all his might not to mess up his project while trying to maintain balance.

FIX IT ...

Liza Gross gets some of her work corrected by Mr. Kim Cordray as he wanders the room looking for students that need help.

GATHER ROUND CLASS ...

Mr. Kim Cordray rallies his students around to talk about procedures before beginning a new project.