With good grades comes rewards ...

WOW A FLY BALL!

Dan Bates looks at the field in awe as to what is going on and is anxious to see what will happen next.

WHAT A BRIGHT DAY ...

Sophomore Courtney McBride kicks back with her shades on and enjoys watching the Lansing Lugnuts take home the victory.

Every year in the spring, students' grades are assessed to see who is performing well. Those students with a 3.5 grade point average or higher are invited to spend a day at the ball field watching the Lansing Lugnuts. This gives students something to shoot for. Some people also get invited for good citizenship. It's a great reward day!

The Lansing Lugnuts host an annual Grand Slam School Day twice in May where they play early so schools can come and enjoy a day off from school. Go Nuts!

I THINK I HURT MYSELF ...

Casey Jordan appears to have wounded her elbow.

THUMBS UP CREEPY GUY ...

Katie Jordan slaps on a smile and poses with this odd looking man for a good laugh or two.
