

We'll Miss You!

ALWAYS CARING...

Mrs. Arnst did not have quite the same reputation as her brother as far as being very strict. She is stern, but in a more caring way. She always had high expectations for her students.

WHAT A CUTIE!

Young Nancy gives a shy smile for her school picture. She always has a smile that will brighten up a room and show she cares.

NICE HAT...

Mr. Andersen sports a hat that he confiscated as he waves his final good-byes to the students on the last day of school.

WHERE'D THE HAIR GO?

PAY ATTENTION...

Mrs. Arnst uses class time to read to her students. The students are always excited to hear the day's story and Mrs. Arnst knows how to spark their imaginations.
