

6th Grade

A SAILING WE WILL GO!

Mr. Willbanks took the sixth grade class out for a sailing adventure on the Saginaw Bay. The students got to help put up the sails and took water samples and looked at them through the microscope.

IT'S WINDY!

Meggan Andrews enjoys a breezy day out of school as she enjoys the sailboat ride.

I DON'T UNDERSTAND...

Classmates Carlie Smith and Emma Kremer try to understand a problem. Carlie looks to the board for a possible solution to the problem.

THAT'S INTERESTING!

Samantha Dunlap and Danyelle Hardman are quite fascinated by the sailboat tour. They had to listen very closely to directions while on the boat.

AHOY!

Is that Devon Reichard with the captain of the boat? Yes, Devon Reichard took time out of his busy schedule to get to know the captain!
