

Let's Party In Spanish they have a food day. The Spanish teacher let them bring in food associated to what country they were learning about.

Using Time Wisely Juniors Gabe Saylor and Madison Howe silently working hard on their spanish worksheet.

Studying Instead of enjoying the food day they had Tasha Arntz chooses to study instead. She was very concentrated on her work.

Almost There Nathan Denman is so glad this is his last time taking spanish for the rest of his high school career.

Homework Eli Davis sits and does homework instead of talk during class. This was the day of a food party.

"One language sets you in a corridor for life. Two languages open every door along the way."
