

Model United Nations

How do you handle stress and pressure at Model UN meets?

"I stay calm and watch the way others are performing to make sure I am doing things correctly. It also helps knowing that I get unlimited pizza and cookies."

Stephanie Cordray, 12th Grade

How important is it to work together in Model UN?

"Working together is everything. It helps to get a resolution ready in time, without needing more time."

Noah Drummond, 11th Grade

1 Chelsey Spitzley is prepared for the Model U.N. meet, Hannah Whitford needs a few more minutes to prepare.

2. Kadyn Welch and Jaden Gavenda talk strategy during their meet.

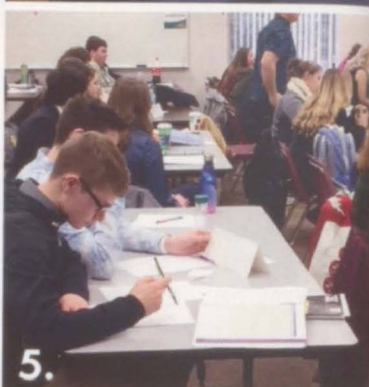

3. Several Model U.N members listen while Noah Drummond gives his presentation.

4. Ezra Bearden stands up to present his debate.

5. Jaden Gavenda sits at the table carefully looking over his notes.

Student Council

What's it like to be president of student council? What does your role include?

"It is very busy and challenging at times. I organize most parts of our events. I overlook the other members to make sure they know their tasks and come up with ideas to represent their class."

Jaden Gavenda, 11th Grade

How long have you been a member of student council. What event are you most proud of?

"This is the first year I've been a student council member. I help out with general tasks and responsibilities. I'm most proud of our decorations for spirit week"

Ezra Bearden, 12th Grade

1 The student council sets up for the exciting game of musical pillows for the pep assembly.

2 Members of student council act as judges during pep assembly games for spirit week.

3 Jaden Gavenda and Noah Drummond give students instructions on the next game they are going to play.
