

More than a school

Top: Ashley students pose in Merrill's gym after winning the battle of the fans.

Left & Below: Students practice their cheering during and assembly and at basketball games to prepare for the battle of the fans.

Top: Shelly Moore is all smiles as she donates blood at the February blood drive.

Left: Shannon Lester shows off her confidence while waiting to get her turn to donate.

"Genie, genie grant my wish. Make that ball go swish!"

Colin Dolloff

"My favorite part about mentoring is playing games with the 8th graders. I like that all the 8th graders always want to play basketball"

Noah Drummond

"My favorite part about mentoring is getting to know the little kids and have them look up to you. I like to listen to them talk about everything that has happened to them during the day."

Karlle Howe

"My favorite part about mentoring is being able to work with kids. I especially love to work with the younger kids."

Ethan Malek

"My favorite part about mentoring is that I get to help the kids make educational advances. I mentor the 3rd grade class and my favorite part about that class is that they are all excellent kids who are devoted to learning and try their best to succeed."