

More than an Editor

What are your main responsibilities as editor?

"My responsibilities include making sure everyone is on task and completing their pages. I also do finishing touches and check for mistakes."

What skills have you learned as editor?

"I have improved my proofreading skills and I have learned a lot about editing the pictures we take."

Why should people buy a yearbook?

"People should buy a yearbook because it brings your memories from high school to life."

What is your favorite thing about the 2018 yearbook?

"I like the 'more than students' section because it shows how unique Ashley is."

Kennedy Bearden, 12th Grade

Why would you take yearbook again next year or in college?

"I would take it because I think it's fun and I like photography"

Nicole Pioszak, 9th Grade

What is the most rewarding part of working on the yearbook?

"The most rewarding part is taking pictures of people, showing what they enjoy doing and letting others see."

Jordan Saylor, 9th Grade

Why do you think the yearbook is important?

"I think it's important because you get to take pictures of people expressing what they believe in and showing school spirit."

Hailey Sowers, 10th Grade

The yearbook students work together in pairs to create unique spreads for their assigned pages. It's important that all pages follow the designated theme. Yearbook staff members are responsible for creating questions, interviewing students, and taking photos at events. Staff members must also market the yearbook to students and also sell ads to local businesses.

Hailey Sowers

Student Council, NHS, Model UN, Above the influence, student life divider, 7th grade, 11th grade

Layla Cross

Front page, table of contents, band, HS reward trip, fall team photos, winter team photos

Anthony Batora

Homecoming, Sports divider, HS & MS football, varsity & JV boy's basketball

Becca Crumbaugh

Academics, HS & MS football, 5th Grade, 6th Grade

Hannah Burgess

Senior portraits, senior memories, 5th & 6th grade

Kirstin Sperling

Student life, Sports division, soccer/wrestling, JV boy's basketball, 7th grade, 8th grade, 11th grade

Shelly Moore

Senior portraits, student interests, voc. education

Bailey Edgar

Senior portraits, student interests, voc. education

Adreanna Crumbaugh

Academics, prom, 5th grade, 6th grade, seniors

Haley Mader

Staff, MS reward trip, people division, 10th grade, senior portraits, graduation